

He's Gonna Marry Me- Written and Recorded by Dolly Parton

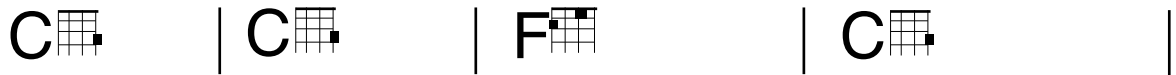

(Intro)

Verses

1) Well I met a boy from Grassy Branch, fine as he can be
 2) His Momma don't like me one little bit, but you know I don't care

I met him at the big barn dance and he took a shine to me
 Let her pitch her hissy-fit, 'cause I ain't marryin' her

Sky- blue eyes, a big wide smile and tall as a sycamore tree
 He's always been a Momma's boy, it's just plain jealous - y

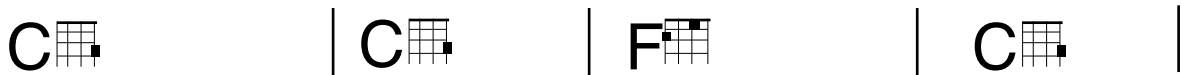

He's real smart with a real big heart and he's gonna marry me
 She's as mad as an old wet hen, 'cause he's gonna marry me

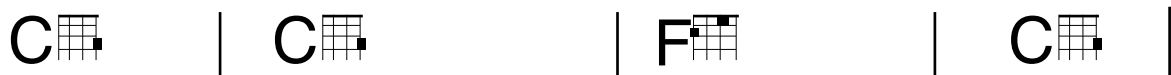

Choruses

1) He's gonna marry me and we're gonna go to town
 2) He's gonna marry me he's gonna buy me a ring
 3) Yeah, he's gonna marry me he's gonna buy me a ring

We're gonna buy us a real good car and we're gonna drive a- round
 We're gonna be so free, cut Momma's apron strings
 We're gonna be so free, cut Momma's apron strings

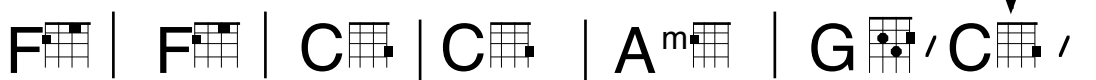

We'll hold hands, touch 'n hug, he talks so sweet to me
 He's gonna build me a pretty little house, have a pretty little babe or three
 He's gonna build me a pretty little house, have a pretty little babe or three

'Cause he knows a lot about love and stuff and he's gonna marry me
 'Cause he's done kiss me on the mouth, an' he's gonna marry me. (Yeah)
 'Cause he's done kiss me on the mouth, so he's gotta marry me (Yeah) he's done kiss me on the mouth, an' he's gonna marrrrrrry meeee- eh - he - heeeee

Yodel - de-de-de- de- de!
