9:15 Monday morning at the printing works

The boss notices someone's not clocked in, and the water department of the council offices has a message. That Mrs. Park's daughter is missing. Meanwhile the Carlisle turn-off of the M6 Motorway, drinking cold black coffee eating hot cup-cakes, she stares at him with his beard un-shaved. Wonders at his powers of staying awake. He whispers slowly "You did just fine" They shared the driving all through the night. She laughs My mother will have lost her mind we're only ten miles to Gretna they're three hundred behind. Moonlighting they're leaving everything, moon lighting, they're losing all their friends Moonlighting It's the only way it's frightening But it means they'll stay to-gether. They're gonna make it together
