

Pinball Wizard by The Who.

NB. This is a bit of a mash up without key change in the original

(Intro)

since I was a young boy I played the silver ball from stand like a statue, part of the machine.

Soho down to Brighton I Feeling all the bumpers must have played 'em all. You ain't seen anything like him in any amusement hall that always playin' clean. Plays by intuition, digit counters fall, that deaf, dumb and blind kid, sure played a mean pin- ball

He He's a pin- ball wizard, there has to be a

twist

pin- ball wizard's got such a supple

wrist

How do you think he does it? I don't know.

What makes him so good?

Ain't got no distractions, can't hear no buzzers and bells. Don't see no lights a-flashin' on my favourite table, he can beat my best, his disciples lead him in Plays by sense of smell, always get a replay, never seen him fail, that and he just does the rest. Crazy flipper fingers, never seen him fail, that
